To The Honorable James R. Thompson, Governor and
The Honorable Members of the 83rd General Assembly of the State of Illinois

I am pleased to present the 1982 Annual Report of the Office of the Commissioner of Banks and Trust Companies. Data for the State chartered banks of Illinois, their trust departments, trust companies of Illinois and foreign banking offices continue to reflect an overall sound financial condition during a period of severe economic challenge.

The year 1982 was a busy and productive year for the Commissioner's office. Particularly, two achievements in the operation of the agency are worthy of special attention. The increased number of bank examiners authorized by the General Assembly and approved by the Governor, combined with additional training provided to all examiners, has produced a 17% increase in the number of banks that received full-scope examinations in 1982.

In addition, the agency began examining electronic data processing service bureaus and electronic funds transfer networks for the first time. The rapid growth of electronic banking and electronic data processing within the banking system of Illinois has added more complex responsibilities to the agency.

After thorough examinations by experienced agency professionals and because of specific problems disclosed in each case, I closed three State banks during the year 1982 in order to protect the depositors of the closed banks. These instances, while related to the stress of the economy, were not reflective of the Illinois banking system in general. Overall, the Illinois system is safe, sound, and quite capable of effectively meeting the needs of the Illinois populace.

A sluggish economy, federal deregulation of the financial services industry and the authorization of multibank holding companies in Illinois added significantly to the duties and demands of this Office during 1982. Continued support from the Administration and from the General Assembly is essential to maintain and expand a safe and sound banking system in Illinois to meet the State's growing need for credit and depository services.

I wish to assure you and the management, shareholders and employees of our State chartered banking system and the people of this very special state--Illinois--that the Office of the Commissioner of Banks and Trust Companies is committed to fulfilling its mission in a manner that will bring pride to and will earn respect from all of you.

Respectfully,

William C. Harris
